1 Carrying Bag

1. Unroll the net and spread across the court.
2. Locate the pole pieces and lock the top & middle pieces together.
3. Slide the side sleeve over each pole ensuring the white tape is across the top.
4. Lock the bottom pole piece on to complete pole setup.
5. Tie the net onto an eye hook on each pole to hold in place.
6. Hook the guide lines to the eye hook.
7. Have one person hold one of the poles upright.
8. Pull the guide lines out at a 45° angle and hammer the stakes into the ground, tightening slack using the plastic adjusters if needed.
9. Stand the other pole upright and pull until the net is straight across.
10. Pull the guide lines out at a 45° angle and hammer the stakes into the ground, tightening slack using the plastic adjusters if needed.
11. Tighten the net by pulling the net ties taut and re-tying.
12. Using a tape measure, set the boundary line at 30' wide x 60' long for volleyball, 20' wide x 44' long for badminton*, adjusting the boundary line to fit with the net cutting the court in half.
13. Inflate ball by inserting the pump needle at a 90° angle.

Basic Rules of Volleyball:

1. The first team serving is the team who wins a valley.
2. The following games will be served by the previous game loser.
3. The server must serve from the service zone behind the boundary line until after contact.
4. The ball may be served underhand or overhand.
5. The ball must be visible to opponents before serve.
6. Served ball may graze the net and drop to the other side for a point.
7. Serve must be returned by a bump only. No setting or attacking a serve.

Playing:

1. The ball can be played off the net during a volley or serve.
2. Players must not block or attack a serve.
3. Maximum of three hits per side.
4. If two or more players contact the ball simultaneously, it is considered one play and the players involved may not participate in the next play.
5. Players may not hit the ball twice in a row (blocks are not considered hits).
6. A ball touching the boundary line is considered in-bounds.
7. A legal hit is contact with the ball by a player's body above and including the waist and does not allow the ball to come to a rest.
8. Switching positions will be allowed only between front row players any only after the serve.

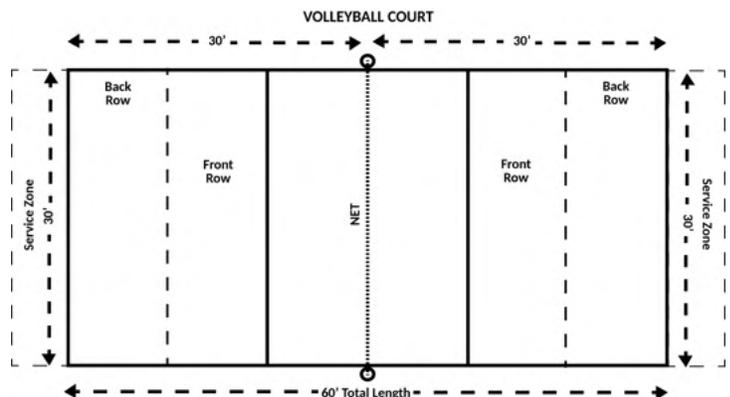

*All playing areas vary and court diagrams represent regulation sized courts. Have fun and adjust the court to fit your playing area!

Scoring:

1. A point is scored on every live play of the ball, either by the serving or receiving team.
2. Offense scores on a defensive miss or out of bounds hit.
3. Defense scores on an offensive miss, out of bounds hit, serve into the net.
4. Must win by 2 points.
5. The game will be played to 25 points or until 1 team has 2 more points than the opposing team.

Rotation:

1. Teams rotate each time they win the serve.
2. Players rotate in a clockwise manner.
3. Four to six players on each side, with half in the front row and half in the back row
